

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

THE FUNNIEST OF THEM ALL

Words and Music
by George Boyden

PUBLISHED BY
WALKER MUSIC CO.
HANDFIELD MASS.

WMP

CHARLIE CHAPLIN
 THE FUNNIEST OF THEM ALL

Words and Music by
 GEORGE LOYDES

PIANO

Melodius

Till ready

1. If you want to see a ha - ar
 2. Tell us, Ma - ter Chap - lin, that I not - is that, One who'll make you laugh when no one else can make you cack, Whether hit you with an egg or a brick!

He is one a you - tare Chap - lin Chap - lin's is That had and made you all a - round the side - by house. I fun - ny lit - tle Pookamen with the catch - me - bid do grin. You'll bet you see a lot of sals up - on your bumps and wags. They know him by his duds, by - his lit - tle mas - tache... And the dump you in the bay, far a - way from the shores... But you disk - y man he can run when he goes to make a dash. And al - ways come up sail - ing so they fancy you is some more. But

Charles Chaplin

if per-chance in his mis- fit pants, the sur-a - then he takes, He'll you should feel, we know you got, for act-ing like a calf, E al-ways stop, with a side, ways hop, as he puts on the bread!

 nough and more to re-pay each one and give us all the laugh-

CHORUS
 Char - le Chap - lin, you're a brat, You're the best - est one - of them all. Best stand bang - al. RIF bang kick! Quieter than Nick with the old chap with. What a lot... Not - or an y thing but... A lot of laugh ty and ty but soon you're got... Each John mark on the screen... that - this you'll would seem... The has - by is has - by but got on the screen...

That - So Chap - lin you're a screen...

Chaplin