

ROLAND'S PIANOFORTE TUTOR THE BEST IN THE WORLD

Nº 831

Feldman's 6th Edition

"The SONG that Half the NATION is Singing" The Daily Mail, December 1st 1915.

THE MOON SHINES BRIGHT ON CHARLIE CHAPLIN.

Words by

Edward Stanning,

AND

Thurland Chattaway.

TO THE MELODY OF
KERRY MILLS'
FAMOUS
"RED WING"

Sung by

MISS LILLIE SOUTTER.

COPYRIGHT.

London:

B. FELDMAN & CO 2, 3 & 4, Arthur St. New Oxford St. W.C.

Copyright 1907 by F.A. Mills 32 W. 39th St. New York.

Copyright 1916 by B. Feldman 4 Ct. London, England.

When the Moon shines bright on Charlie Chaplin.

Words by
THURLAND CHATTAWAY & EDWARD STANNING.

Music by KERRY MILLS.

Moderato.

PIANO.

Key Eb. Slower than march time.

You've sung of the Boys in Some day there will come the Blue, time You've sung of their girls so true, You've To "Wind up the Watch on the Rhine," And

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

f . f , m : r . f , f | m . m , r : d . m | r , r . l , l : t , . d |

marched to the strain Of the well known re-frain Of "Who's Your La - dy Friend" and Tom-my and Jack Will come march-ing back And take a cup for the r , m . r , t : s , . s , | d . d , t : d . m | s :- . d |

"Tip - per - ar - y" too. Our Tom - mies so brave and strong Have sake of "Auld Lang Syne." But ere that hap - py day The

f . f , l : d ' . l | s :- . m | f . f , m : r . f | sung ev - ry kind of song, But what is the lay They're Ger - mans have got to pay, When we march in To

m . m , r : d . m | r . l , : t , l . s , | d |

sing - ing to - day As they go march - ing a - long ?
cap - ture Ber - lin We'll sing them this lit - tle lay.

CHORUS.

"When the Moon shines bright on Char-lie Chap - lin..... His boots are crack - ing ..... For want of black - ing,..... And his lit - tle bag - gy trous-ers they want mend - ing,..... Be - fore we send him..... To the Dar - den -

- elles?..... "When the - elles?.....

D.C.